The Disney VIP Tour Planner

What a Disney Private VIP Tour includes, what it really costs per person, and how to tell if it's right for your group.

Included

- Your own Disney VIP guide for the day
- Private vehicle pickup and return at your hotel
- Several parks in one day, moved between privately
- Pre-arrival planning and a flexible start time
- Efficient access to the attractions you choose

Not included

- Park tickets for every park you visit
- Tax

The rules, as of November 2026

- $450–$950 per hour, depending on the date
- 7-hour minimum, 10-hour maximum
- Up to 10 guests, infants included
- Same hourly rate for 2 guests or 10
- Requests open 60 days before your tour
- Cancel 3+ days ahead, or pay a fee equal to 2 hours

Booking through Pixie?

Since April 2026, advisors can add a VIP Tour to a Walt Disney Travel Company package. It goes on one booking with one payment plan.

THE MATH

What it costs, total and per person

Total tour cost, before tax and tickets

Hourly rate	7 hours	8 hours	10 hours
$450 (lowest dates)	$3,150	$3,600	$4,500
$700 (mid-range)	$4,900	$5,600	$7,000
$950 (peak dates)	$6,650	$7,600	$9,500

Per person, 7-hour tour

Hourly rate	6 guests	8 guests	10 guests
$450	$525	$394	$315
$700	$817	$613	$490
$950	$1,108	$831	$665

OUR TAKE

"The price is per guide, not per person. Ten guests on a lowest-rate date pay $315 each, which is less than a Magic Kingdom Premier Pass on most days ($329–$449)."

Is it right for us? Tick what applies.

- [ ] We have only one or two park days
- [ ] We're celebrating something big
- [ ] We're a group of six to ten
- [ ] We want several parks in one day
- [ ] Someone in our group needs less walking
- [ ] We'd rather not plan the day ourselves

Three or more ticks: a VIP tour is worth pricing. Fewer: Lightning Lane Premier Pass on your busiest day may cover it for less.

AN EXAMPLE DAY

Every tour is custom. Here is one shape a 7-hour day can take.

Pickup	Your guide meets you at your hotel
Park one	Your top must-dos while they're fresh
Midday	Lunch, then a private drive to park two
Park two	Shows, rides and photo spots on your list
Late afternoon	One more favorite, then back to your hotel to rest before dinner

BEFORE WE REQUEST IT

Questions we'll ask you

- Your dates and which parks
- Who's coming, and anyone who needs a slower pace
- Your must-do list, ranked
- Height of the youngest riders, for ride planning
- What you're celebrating
- Start time: early bird or late start
